

Systems perspectives on policy development and evaluation

One day conference: Tuesday 26 June 2018

Location: British Library Knowledge Centre, 96 Euston Road, London NW1 2DB

9:30-10:00	Registration
10:00-10:10	Welcome
10:10-11:00	What does it mean to have a systems perspective on policy development and evaluation? Plenary: Diane Finegood (Simon Fraser University, Vancouver)
11:00-11:30	Break
11:30-12:45	A complex systems approach to creating and evaluating the conditions for health in low income communities Katrina Wyatt (University of Exeter) NHS England's approach to evaluating complex system change: The New Care Models (NCM) Programme Samantha Hinks (NHS England)
12:45-1:30	Lunch
1:30-3:00	Wicked problems, wicked solutions: evaluating system change Matt Barnard (NatCen Social Research) Theory of change and systems change: what happens when two disciplines collide? Katie Boswell (New Philanthropy Capital) The imperative and demands of a complex systems lens on evaluation Zenda Ofir (Independent Evaluator / Stellenbosch University)
3:00-3:30	Break
3:30-4:30	Panel discussion: Diane Finegood (Simon Fraser University, Vancouver) Joseph Lowe (HM Treasury) David Johnson (Department for Work & Pensions) Catherine Foot (Centre for Ageing Better) Tim Baxter (Department of Health & Social Care)
4:30-4:35	Concluding remarks and close