

Methods Fair 2017

1 November 2017 at The University of Manchester

Find out more >

About

Events

Join us for one of our talks, workshops or other methods-related events.

Videos

Watch video recordings of our latest sessions, seminars and lectures.

Our outputs

Explore our themes and associated outputs - presentations, further reading and other useful links.

- Aims:
- to highlight Manchester's strength in research methods in the social sciences
- to promote interdisciplinary and innovative methodological developments
- to foster further developments, including training, through external funding

- We achieve these aims by:
- creating web pages that showcase the expertise in research methods within the faculty
- promoting and facilitating methods-related events across the university
- holding events promoting methods, such as, our Methods Fair and the Summer School

MANCHESTER
1824

The University of Manchester

METHODS FAIR
1 NOVEMBER 2017

www.methods.manchester.ac.uk

methods@manchester Summer School 2017

Research and Data Analysis Skills Training

One week courses in quantitative and qualitative methods

26-30 June | 3-7 July

www.methods.manchester.ac.uk

@methodsMcr

methodsMcr

methodsMcr

METHODS@MANCHESTER

LUNCHTIME SEMINAR SERIES

methods@manchester is delighted to launch its lunchtime seminar series for the first semester featuring presents from the Victoria University of Wellington; the Data Linkage and Integrating Authority, Melbourne; and the University of Manchester.

4 October Contrasts in Punishment and the (usually) unacknowledged feature of social science research: good fortune

Professor John Pratt, Institute of Criminology, Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand

9 October What is data linkage for longitudinal cohort studies?

Dr Galina Daraganova, Executive Manager, Large Scale and Longitudinal Studies, Data Linkage and Integrating Authority, Melbourne, Australia

18 October What is crowdsourced data?

Dr Reka Solymosi, School of Law, University of Manchester

8 November Doing research with letters: lessons from the field

Dr Marion Vannier, School of Law, University of Manchester

Keep in touch ...

- @MethodsMcr
- www.methods.manchester.ac.uk
- <https://www.youtube.com/user/CCSRmanchester>
- methods@manchester.ac.uk
- Lisa.williams-2@manchester.ac.uk

